

Location:

University of St. Gallen
Dufourstrasse 50
9000 St. Gallen

Contact:

michael.festl@unisg.ch
+41 71 224 3116

Organization:

Michael Festl
Jan-Christoph Heilingner
Dieter Thomä

Dewey-Center Switzerland

Justice and Cosmopolitanism

A Conversation Between Pragmatists and Rawlsians

International Workshop
at the University of St. Gallen,
Switzerland

April 30th to May 1st 2015

Thursday, April 30th

Room 23-203

12:45p–2:00p Jan-Christoph Heilinger, Munich

“Global luck-egalitarianism and global relational egalitarianism”

2:00p–3:15p Jean-Christophe Merle, Vechta

“Globalization and Responsibility for Realizing Human Rights”

3:30p–4:45p Daniel Bray, Melbourne

“The Advantages of Pragmatism in Cosmopolitan Theory”

Friday, May 1st

Room 23-102

9:00a–10:15a Véronique Zanetti, Bielefeld

“Compromises with regard to transitional justice:
a case for pragmatism”

10:15a–11:30a Michael Festl, St. Gallen

“Pragmatism and the Things We Want from a Theory of Global Justice”

Lunchbreak

Room 23-203

12:45p–2:00p Michael Reder, Munich

“Putting Justice into Perspective:
Pragmatism and Global Governance”

2:00p–3:15p Molly Cochran, Oxford

“Pragmatism, international justice, and the ethics of social radicalism”

3:30p–4:45p Thomas Pogge, Yale

“International Rule of Law and Resistance against It”